PLEASE DESCRIBE YOUR OFFER.

Our uniqueness is that our PGCE qualified educators are all SEND and SEMH trained and qualified to offer the best level of support for each learner to meet their potential. The hub provides each young person with a bespoke tailored programme, which combines their needs, interests and future ambitions. We offer sensory based hands-on learning which will teach the children vital life skills and coping strategies through sport, exercise, nutrition, craft and art, drama, therapeutic play, woodwork and DT, languages, music and qualification driven core subjects. We use a nurturing and emotion coaching approach with a low pressure but high expectation on learners to meet their own potential. In addition to the above, Secondary learners will receive specialist careers advice, help with CV writing, emotional regulation support, and vital life skills including personal hygiene, budgeting, cooking, independent living. Learners will complete PSHE lessons which cover all things from personal safety to emotional wellbeing to finances and participation in community projects. We offer a variety of awards including ASDAN and art awards, Functional Skills and GCSE. The hub provides access to a range of additional services from Educational Psychologists, Speech and language therapists, Child psychologists, onsite SENCO, art therapists, Specialist dyslexia assessors and support and training for parents.
