The programme format is that of being a Football Manager, entitled 'Managing in Grassroots Football', but the underlying exploration is that of the YPs ability in "Managing Yourself and Your Lifestyle Choices". This will be undertaken by group activities known on the programme as 'Team Briefings', coupled with Coaching and PT Trainer practical sessions where we teach the YP how to lead/deliver sessions. The Programme modules are detailed as below; - θ Being A Football Manager ("Managing Yourself & Your Lifestyle Choices") θ Tactics and Formations ("How You Choose to Live") θ Match Day (Scenarios) ("Your Everyday Choices") θ Running a Training Session (Learning & Improving) θ Getting Your Points Across ("Shout! Bully! Or persuade! /Accept!) θ Dealing with Injuries ("Setbacks & Mistakes") θ Advising Players ("Role Models" – "What would you tell Your Inner-self?") θ Running The Team ("Your Philosophy", "Your Goals", "Your Vision") θ Getting Qualified ("Learning from Others", "People You Trust, or Respect") θ Practical Training Session (Games and Activities) The steps at present have been to develop our business ethos, rules and behaviours. The programme is intended to be deliver over a 6-to-8-week period, each financial quarter, to between 6-8 participants and annual minimum number of 32 participants. To those exclude in/from schools/colleges, or on licence as part of the CJS (Criminal Justice System). logistics for the programme will be the timings of: 09:30am – 10am Breakfast Meeting (this will allow the opportunity for the provision of a nutritionist to all participants. This will then allow a 10am start, for a 3pm finish an approximately 5hr day with breaks. Both practical & training sessions (outside), along with team briefings sessions (inside) need to be pre-arranged, and a risk assessed. As part of the next steps has been to engage and identify eligible cohorts with schools/colleges and Local Authority deprived areas. There will be a period at the end of the programme to gain participant feedback and the monitoring of outcomes. Each participant will be inducted via a 1-2-1 person-centred approach and a further 1-2-1 with at the end. The Coaches will explore the young person's personal journey: - • strengths • life skills • support networks • triggers and risk factors • personal needs. Outcomes will include help with CVs, networking, clubs, access to further learning. The aim is to deliver from a neutral and conducive venue with access to classroom, sports pitches and gym and indoor facilities when necessary. Personal workbooks, kits appropriate for sports activity and class environment, balls bibs, cones, staff, and participants uniform (Sportswear), projector, advertising/publicity material, flyers, business cards advertising Banner, sports facilities (pitch, goals) Classroom (tables chairs, etc)
